

Estate Planning Worksheet

The information requested on this worksheet may seem like none of our business, but it is very important that an estate planner understands your present situation and your wishes for the future. This information enables us to plan the estate to accomplish future goals and to save on taxes and administrative expenses.

Plan of Distribution

1. Specific Gifts. Do you want to make charitable gifts, such as to a house of worship or other institution? Do you wish to make a special gift to a particular person, such as a piece of jewelry to a particular child?

2. Briefly describe the plan of distribution for assets remaining after any specific gifts described above are made. (Don't worry about tax planning or other considerations in answering this question. We'll consider those details later if needed.)

All to spouse; then among children, and if a child didn't survive, the deceased child's share to the deceased child's children.

All to spouse, then equally among surviving children.

All to spouse, then _____

Appointments

1. Personal Representative. The will should name a personal representative to handle the transfer of ownership of assets under the supervision of the Court. (Personal representative is also sometimes referred to as executor or administrator.) (e.g., spouse as primary personal representative, with a child, relative, friend, or corporate trustee as alternate. In situations where there are children by a previous relationship, spouse as primary personal representative may not be appropriate.)

Husband/Personal Representative:

Husband/Alternate:

Husband/Second Alternate:

(If spouse's designations are the same, you may simply write "SAME" below or leave blank.)

Wife/Personal Representative:

Wife/Alternate:

Wife/Second Alternate:

2. Successor Trustee. If you choose to avoid probate (the court-supervision procedure for transferring ownership of someone's assets after he or she dies) of your estate by executing a living trust during lifetime, a successor trustee should be named. The successor trustee would be responsible for managing assets if you were unable, or in the case of a joint trust, if neither you nor your spouse were able to manage assets due to incompetence. The successor trustee would distribute assets to beneficiaries after death, or in a joint trust, when neither you nor your spouse survives.

3. Health Care Agent. Who should be named to make medical decisions on your behalf including decisions regarding medical consents, life support issues, and nursing home admission if you were unable to make these decisions yourself? It is not necessary to appoint the same person who is your successor trustee or personal representative as your health care agent.

4. Agent for business and financial matters. Who should be named to act for you in financial matters, including signing legal documents, paying bills, and buying and selling real estate? It is not necessary to appoint the same person who is your successor trustee or personal representative as your agent for business and financial matters.

Husband/Agent for business and financial matters:

Second Alternate:

(If spouse's designations are the same, you may simply write "SAME" below or leave blank.)

Wife/Agent for business and financial matters:

Second Alternate:

Please complete numbers 5, 6, and 7 only if you have minor beneficiaries, beneficiaries with disabilities, or do not want a trust to distribute immediately.

5. Guardian. If you have child(ren) or other beneficiary(ies) who are minors or who have special needs, you may need to appoint a guardian. The guardian is responsible for the day-to-day care of the child. It is a good idea to name an alternate guardian to act if your first choice cannot serve.

Guardian:

Alternate:

6. Testamentary Trustee. You may need a trustee to manage assets for beneficiaries until they reach an age when you believe they should be capable of managing assets on their own. A trustee can keep the beneficiary's money invested wisely and use it for their education, support, etc., until they reach the age specified for outright distribution of assets to them. The trustee can be a relative, friend, trust company, or other person or institution you trust to manage and distribute assets according to your wishes. The testamentary trustee can be the same person named as the guardian, or could be a different person or institution.

Testamentary Trustee:

7. Age of Distribution. If you do establish a trust to allow a third party to manage assets for beneficiaries, then it is necessary for you to decide when the beneficiaries will be mature enough to manage assets on their own. You may want to give each beneficiary his or her share at the time the beneficiary reaches a particular age. You may consider splitting the distribution, such as ½ at age 25 and the balance at age 30, or 1/3 at 21, 1/3 at 25, and 1/3 at 35. You may use any age or combination of ages that you choose.

STATEMENT OF FAITH DECLARATION
(Optional Language)

For many people it is important that their estate documents contain a declaration of their trust and confidence in the Lord, in this life and their life thereafter. They hope it will be a source of comfort for those they will leave behind upon their passing. We are providing samples of the Faith Statement that we often use for Wills or Trusts and for Healthcare Powers of Attorney.

Faith Statement for Will or Trust

I commit myself to God's care, secure in His love for me and trusting in the salvation purchased for me through Christ's suffering, death and resurrection. I leave those who survive me the comfort of knowing that I have died in this faith and have now joined my Lord in eternal glory. I commend my loved ones to the protecting arms of the Lord, knowing that He will continue to provide for them despite my absence and I encourage them to place their faith and trust in Him alone for their salvation.

Faith Statement for Healthcare Power of Attorney

I hereby declare my faith in Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior. While I thank God for the skills and abilities with which He has gifted me the medical personnel who will be attending to my care, ultimately my health and my life remain in His hands. Therefore, I request that my health care agent pray for God's guidance in all matters hereunder whenever my agent is asked to make decisions on my behalf.
